

THE FACILITATOR

NAME:

DATE:

YOUR ROLE:

As the facilitator, you will lead your Literary Circle meeting. You will begin by giving the group a summary of the book and choosing a short extract to read aloud to the group. After your presentation, you will invite other members of the group to speak and help to guide and expand the discussion.

FACILITATOR EXPECTATIONS:

- Summarize the chapters you read for the week.
- Pick 1 passage to read to the group that was impactful or stood out to you and explain why you felt it was significant.
- Call on others to present their roles.
- Contribute to the discussion and encourage others to share.

WRITING A SUMMARY

A summary is a brief account that presents the main points or events of a longer text to others. Start by noting down some of the main events that took place in the chapters you have read for this activity:

CHOOSING A PASSAGE

Pick a short passage to read to the group. This should be a part in the story that did one or more of the following:

- Moved the plot forward
- Revealed something new about a character/event
- Offered a different perspective on a situation
- Was well-written and captivating
