

DISCUSSION DIRECTOR

NAME:

DATE:

YOUR ROLE

You need to write open questions about the chapters you read this week. You should not repeat questions from past weeks. Also, you must write the answers to your own questions so you have ideas to talk about and can help your classmates if they get stuck.

OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

An open-ended question should be questions that require your group members to predict, analyze, or evaluate.

QUESTIONS	ANSWER
1
2
3

DISCUSSION DIRECTOR

NAME:

DATE:

YOUR ROLE

You will create meaningful open-ended questions for the group to discuss. The questions will be related to the chapters read and should not be the same as in previous weeks. You will also answer your own questions so that you have talking points and can prompt others if they are stuck.

QUESTIONS

ANSWER

4

5

6